DEATHS.

Thomas Richardson, aged 84 years, one of Paris' oldest residents, died at an early hour Tuesday morning. He was a soldier in the Federal army and was a wagon maker by trade.

Mr. Richardson was twice married and is survived by his second wife, and several children, among them Thomas Richardson, and Mrs. Mollie Lake, of Chattanooga, Tenn.; Sam and Ed. Richardson, of Cincinnati, and a sister, Miss Bettie Richardson, East Paris, also survives.

The funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon for the residence at 2 o'clock, services by Rev. M. T. Chandler. Burial in Paris cemetery.

The following were the pall-bearers: Martin Doyle, W. H. Dawson, P. Nippert, George Taylor, J. H. Haggard, and E. B. January.

George W. Stivers, aged 69 years, died at his home on Hanson street, Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, of general debility.

Mr. Stivers was a native of Bourbon county, being a son of the late Rozelle P. Stivers, who in the early history of the county was prominent as a contractor, machinist, and cabinet maker. Mr. Stivers was a soldier in the Union army during the civil war and was a brother of the late Major Joseph W. Stivers. He is survived by two sons, John B. Stivers, of this city, and R. P. Stivers, of Newport, and one daughter, Mrs. Mattie Lang, of Hot Springs, Ark. The burial will take place today at 12:30 o'clock in the cemetery at North Middletown, the cortege leaving the residence on Hanson street at 10 o'clock. The pall-bearers will be J. Walker Muir, Leroy McDowell, Oliver Argos, John Doyle, Clyde Tyres and Col. J. W. Prescott.

Mrs. Elizabeth Brannock, aged 74 years, died Sunday afternoon at her home in Pleasant Hill, Mo., after a protracted illness of a complication of diseases, and was buried in that city Tuesday. Mrs. Brannock was formerly of Bourbon, being a daughter of the late Allen M. Kiser, of Kiseron. She is survived by one son, Charles Brannock, a prominent farmer, residing in Cass county, Mo., and one brother, Allen M. Kiser, of this city.

Collier Retains Nomination.

Thomas H. Collier retains the nomination for county judge in Nicholas. The Nicholas County Democratic Committee met in Carlisle Wednesday to consider further some questions in regard to the Democratic nomination for the office. The meeting was held behind closed doors, no one was permitted to be present except Judge McNew and his attorney, William Conley, and T. H. Collier and his attorney, Judge Samuel Holmes. The question as to whether or not the committee, after declaring T. H. Collier the nominee has a right to canvass the returns of the questioned ballots was argued before the meeting, and the committee unanimously determined that it was not within its power to again take up that matter, so the vote remains as reported, McNew 615; Collier 616, giving Collier a majority of one over McNew.

Result of Clark Primary.

The following is the result of the Clark county Democratic primary which was held Tuesday:

R. D. Hunter was nominated for the representative over W. T. Odgen, by 885 votes and Jonas B. Bush, for Circuit Clerk, over Mr. Clay Aldridge, by a majority of 482. In the County Attorney's race, S. T. Davis beat S. A. Jeffries, the present incumbent by 720. J. A. Boone, the incumbent was re-elected County Clerk over Clay Aldridge by a vote of 467.

The race for sheriff was close until the last few days when Baldwin and Jones put forth very little effort. Brock was the winner by a majority of 896.

John E. Lanter was elected Superintendent of the County Schools over Miss Stevenson and Miss Mary Betts, by a plurality of 116. In the Assessor's race, John G. Bedford had an easy victory with a plurality of 210 over Allen Brown, D. A. Hughes and W. T. Hilton. James Mullins, for jailer had a plurality over C. A. Sullivan of 212. In the Coroner's race there were four candidates, Dr. H. C. Nunnelly, Dr. A. Castle, L. Brinkley and Lewis Willard. Dr. Nunnelly was nominated by a plurality of 212.

Judges.

Mr. Taft in his speech at Charlotte called the Federal judiciary "the strongest bulwark that we have in this country to protect ultimately our institutions of civil liberty," and proclaimed as the rule governing his own policy in relation to appointments that "there is no more sacred duty that the Executive has than in the selection of men whose appointment and service on the bench will strengthen it (the Constitution) with all the people at large."

Nothing that Mr. Taft is likely to do as President can be of more importance to the country than his selection of Federal Judges, says the New York World. He has already expressed the opinion that "the greatest question now before the American public is the improvement of the administration of justice, civil and criminal;" but there can be no such improvement unless men who are in sympathy with reformed procedure are named for the bench.

Our courts have inherent powers that are beyond the authority of any Congress or Legislature to change. They have constitutional powers such as have been vested by no other country in such tribunals. No Congress, no Legislature, can enact a law abridging the constitutional rights of any American citizen unless the court acquiesces. No statute can deny justice or work injustice unless the courts co-operate to give it validity. Indeed, the only law that has a practical existence in this country is such law as the courts will construe and enforce.

Whatever Congress or Legislatures may try to do to diminish the law's delay, the final reform must lie in the judiciary itself, which has the power to interpret what the legislative department has done. Without waiting for legislative action the courts can hasten and cheapen the process of justice by quickening the procedure and by denying appeals that are based on mere technicalities.

The Supreme Court Justices of the State of New York are preparing to form an association which among other things is to consider this matter of expediting procedure. Such an association can remedy most of the serious abuses that have arisen in the administration of justice in this State, and its potentiality for good is immeasurable. The World trusts that the Judges who are promoting the organization will carry it on to completion. New York needs co-operation among the men that construe and apply the law.

While the Federal judiciary, as Mr. Taft says, is the strongest bulwark "to protect ultimately our institutions of civil liberty," it is to the State courts that the average citizen must look for the administration of justice in matters that most immediately concern his welfare. It is not the Federal courts but the State courts that interpret the constitution and laws of the State in relation to its citizens, and the State laws are those that are closest to the daily life of the people.

In a republic, there is no more exacted service that any man can perform than to be "a just and upright Judge," whether he be a Federal Judge or a State Judge.

Where the People Are Heard.

There are Americans who find no virtue in the United States Senate; who now criticise that body because it does not permit its presiding officer to pass bills by the gavel; who weary of Senate debates and who call for precipitate action on the tariff, good or bad, as the one sure forerunner of prosperity.

A Constipation Remedy Free

There is no action of your daily life of greater importance than to see that your bowels move. They should move at least once a day naturally, and by that is meant without any help. If they do not move at least once a day you can consider yourself constipated and it is time you did something about it.

You will be glad to know there is a way out of the difficulty. Lemuel Landerdale, an old soldier at Quincy, Ill., Elmer McMillan, of Speed, Mo., Mrs. Monahan of Stonewall, Miss., and many others were as you are now. But one day they awoke to the fact that Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsi was curing their friends so well that they bought it too and it cured them. Today they are loud in praise of it.

What Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsi did for them it should do for you. Surely your constipation is no worse than theirs, for you to realize that some are of temporary good, and what you take is permanent cure; that purgative tablets, cathartic pills and such violent things make a great show of doing something, but do nothing to cure.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsi is a scientific preparation, a laxative-tonic, milky syrup liquid that contains ingredients that not only cure the constipation, but tone the intestinal muscles so that they bear the weight without help. A bottle can be bought for 50 cents, and there is a dollar price for families who have already found its wonderful value in stomach, liver and bowel troubles, in old or young.

Send your name and address to the doctor and a free trial bottle will be sent you so that you can try it before buying.

If there is anything about your ailment that you don't understand, or if you want any medical advice, write to the doctor, and he will answer you fully. There is no charge for this service.

The address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 500 Caldwell bldg., Monticello, Ill.

Postpone Unveiling.

On account of the illness of Arthur Goebel, who is in the West with his brother, the unveiling of the monument of William Goebel will not be held until some time in June. It was expected that the statue would be unveiled in May, but it is desired to have Mr. Goebel present, and his health will not permit him to come to Frankfort this month. He hopes to be able to be there in June at the date to be fixed by the Goebel monument commission. Senator James B. McCreary, chairman of the commission, has sent word to Frankfort persons interested in the unveiling, that it will have to be postponed once more. The monument, which was erected by the people of the State, has not been veiled for some months, and is one of the interesting objects in the Frankfort cemetery.

Kills Her Foe of 20 Years.

After many remedies had failed and several doctors gave me up, I tried Electric Bitters, which cured me completely. Now I can eat anything. I am 70 years old and am overjoyed to get my health and strength back again." For indigestion, loss of appetite, kidney trouble, lame back, female complaints, it is unequalled. HE GOT BIG PAY.

An African Salute That Commanded Respect and Obedience.

Makuba and Obianga were two Africans, the one the captain of a boat and the other subordinate to him. Obianga was an independent fellow, not in the least lazy, who rather resented "bossing." In a book entitled "The Jungle Folk of Africa" R. H. Milligan tells of an altercation between the two men. Makuba, the diplomatic, came out of it with flying colors.

The worst disputes between Makuba and Obianga took place when they supposed that I was asleep. The native when he lies down anywhere sleeps immediately. Whenever I was lying in the bottom of the boat they always thought I was unconscious and that no conceivable noise could waken me.

Captain Makuba orders Obianga to "haul away on the peak halyards," to which Obianga promptly replies:

"Do it yourself."

"I won't do it; you will do it!" says Makuba in a threatening tone.

"Are you my father?" says Obianga.

"No," answers Makuba, with infinite scorn. "How could a Kombi man be the father of a creature like you?"

"Then stop giving me orders!" says Obianga, with rising wrath. "It is not the first time you have tried it, and one of these days you will find out that it won't do."

"One of these days you will find out that I am captain of this boat and that you will have to obey me," says Makuba.

"Not as long as I carry a gun," answers Obianga.

By this time they are standing up and looking hard at each other. But Makuba would not think of striking a man in a cabin boat. He therefore becomes diplomatic. Suddenly in a tone altogether different he says:

"Obianga, the trouble with you is that you are just a bushman. You don't know anything about civilization. On every big ocean steamer there is a captain, and every man on board, no matter what tribe he belongs to, obeys the captain."

Obianga becomes instantly curious and asks, "Is he rich?"

"Yes," says Makuba; "he gets big pay, and so do I get big pay."

"How much do you get, Makuba?"

"How much do you think?"

Obianga thinks as well as he knows how, his countenance distorted with the effort, and at length answers reflectively, "Two dollars a month." He himself gets a dollar and a half.

A broad smile engages Makuba's features as he slowly answers, "Five dollars a month."

Obianga gives expression to his surprise in a long, low whistle. It is quite evident to him that no ordinary person could command such wages, and in a tone of utmost compliance he says: "What was it you told me to do, Makuba? I forgot."

"I forgot, too," says Makuba. "Oh, yes," he adds, "I told you to haul on the peak halyards."

Maryland Lotteries.

A Baltimore man interested in antiquarian research made a collection of old lottery tickets which gives interesting testimony as to the development of public morals. Most of the tickets were given out by Maryland lotteries, but quite as large a collection could undoubtedly be made in other states. Four of the tickets are in the Washington monument lottery, which was authorized by the legislature and was not given up until 1824. As early as 1733 a lottery was advertised to build a wharf. The drawing took place April 30, 1734. Ten years later one was undertaken to build a market house in "Baltimore Town" and for "buying two fire engines and a parcel of leather buckets." In 1782 a yearly lottery was authorized to aid the city expenses. Other objects for which money was raised in this way were parsonages, church bells, circulating libraries and gristmills.

Bradley Introduces Resolution.

The victory of His Majesty's horse was exceedingly popular and was greeted by a great burst of enthusiasm.

Paris Downs the Lawmakers.

Paris pulled down another game yesterday from the Champions at Frankfort. The score was 3 to 2, which shows that it was a good game of ball. Quinton and Elgin was the battery for Paris.

It will now be only a few days until we are knocking at the door of the leaders. We are now at the head of the second division and only twenty-nine points from third place. Keep your eye on us for we are getting our gait. The following is the score by innings:

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9

Winchester shut Lexington out yesterday by a score of 4 to 0. No game between Richmond and Shelbyville on account of the latter team missing connection at Lexington.

Paris and Shelbyville broke even in a double-header Wednesday on the latter's grounds, the second game being called at the end of fifth inning. The first game was in favor of Paris by score of 11 to 2, and the second in favor of Shelbyville 2 to 1.

Shelbyville had three new men in their lineup, Thomas, shortstop, Wolf, third base; Long, pitcher. The Paris boys had their batting eye with them and forced Livnille to be taken from the box in seventh inning, Shelbyville replacing him with Hornback, who did little better.

The features of the game for the Paris team was Ochs, Felix, Hannigan and Barnett at the bat, and Scott stopping two line drives which looked like would be two hits. The following is the score by innings:

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9

Two-base hits—Wolf, Doherty, Harrigan, Barnett, 2. First base on balls—Winchell 4; off Hornback, 2; Livnille 4. Struck out—by Hornback 2; Winchell 1; Winchell 3. Double plays—Gruenzen to Kuhn 2. Umpire Raesche.

The second game was called after the ending of the fifth inning. The following being the score by innings:

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
Shelbyville	0	0	0	2	0	0	2	0

Two-base hits—Barnett, Thomas, Hornback, Gruenzen. Struck out—by Winchell 3; by Hornback 2. Double plays—Wolf to Gruenzen to Kuhn. Time of game—1:25. Umpire Raesche.

NOTES.

Today's games are as follows: Paris at Frankfort; Shelbyville at Richmond; Winchell at Lexington.

Paris has developed into the best baseball town in the Blue Grass League. The games draw larger crowds here than at any of our sister cities.

The following is schedule of next games in Paris: Frankfort Saturday, 3:30 p. m.; Richmond, Sunday, 3 p. m.; Richmond Monday, at 10 a. m. and at 3:30 p. m.

The grounds at Shelbyville were in a horrible condition, being very sloppy, several loads of sand had been spread over the diamond, but instead of being a benefit proved to make them worse.

Winchell pitched both games at Shelbyville, and under the unfavorable condition of the grounds, pitched great ball. He was supported in great shape, the Bourbonites not making an error in either game.

This "winning habit" that the Bourbonites are developing is very popular with the fans.

Shelbyville has released Hogarty, Ellsworth and Damasky.

It is the opinion of a number of fans that a pitcher should never be allowed to pitch a double-header. The public is always "mighty" proud of him if he wins one game a day.

Pitcher Poole, of the Evansville, Ind., Central League team, has been signed by Manager Schmidt, of the Paris team. He is a six-footer and a left-handed twirler and considered phenomenal in the box.

Guinn and Swearingen have been released by the Paris manager.

Manager Schmidt will get in the box himself as soon as the weather warms up and show you a few things himself. "Smittie" is alright.

"Cy" Young, of Cleveland, who is one of the greatest pitchers in the country was never a "strike-out" pitcher but let batsmen hit the ball. Young is now pitching his twentieth year.

Private detectives have been put on duty in order to ascertain if possible who is responsible for the threatening and warning notices which have been received by the negroes employed at the quarries. The soldiers were on duty about two weeks.

Makers of Notes Must Pay.

That the maker of a note is responsible for its payment, though it may have been sold after being deposited as collateral, was held by Judge Matt O'Doherty, of Louisville, under the negotiable instrument act of 1904, which is the source of many new decisions. The finding was in a case where the note was deposited in bank to secure a loan, and later, the depositor became a bankrupt. The note was sold by the bank and the original maker of the note sought to be relieved from payment. The endorsers, the bank and the depositor resisted payment, but the court decided as above.

Select Your Corset with Care.

Your appearance depends entirely upon your figure. Your figure depends entirely upon your corset. To produce the hipless figure with the slender, graceful lines now in vogue, a perfect corset must be worn, a model that will give you the desired effect and fit you comfortably. Since the introduction of the graceful, slender hip effect, we have satisfied a great many of our most particular customers, with the splendidly shaped Henderson Fashion Form Corsets. Note the stunning effect produced by the model illustrated.

This style, 702, is medium high in the bust and is extra long below the waistline, having a deep, soft extension over abdomen and hips and is double boned throughout. We carry this model in similar styles in several values, ranging in prices from

HONOR ROLL

OF Paris City School For Ninth Month—142 Names On Roll—
Average Attendance 467.

The average daily attendance for this month is 467, a loss of 34 from last month. The reduction is almost wholly due to the voluntary withdrawal of pupils over 14 years of age. Why so many parents permit this is very strange indeed. Everything is in a prosperous condition. All are looking forward with bright anticipations to commencement week. There is an excellent Honor Roll—142, 34 in High School. Many missed it because of inexcused absence or tardy marks, or because the deportment was not satisfactory.

It is not enough to be faithful for one month, nor one term; children, unless sick, should be taught to remain in school the whole year. Let all come the remaining weeks.

Forced into Exile.

Wm. Upchurch, of Glen Oak, Okla., was an exile from home. Mountain air, he thought, would cure a frightening lung racking cough that had defied all remedies for two years. After six months he returned, death dogging his steps. "Then I began to use Dr. King's 'New Discovery,'" he writes, "and after taking six bottles I am as well as ever." It saves thousands yearly from desperate lung diseases. Infallible for coughs and colds. It dispels hoarseness and sore throat. ### Put This Stove in Your Kitchen

It is wonderfully convenient to do kitchen work on a stove that is ready at the instant wanted, and out of the way the moment you're done. Such a stove is the New Perfection Wick Blue Flame Oil Cook-Stove. By using it you avoid the continuous overpowering heat of a coal fire and cook with comfort, even in dog-days. The is so constructed that it cannot add perceptibly to the heat of a room; the flame being directed up a retaining chimney to the stove top where it is needed for cooking. You can see that a stove sending out heat in but one direction would be preferable on a hot day to a stove radiating heat in all directions. The "New Perfection" keeps a kitchen uniformly comfortable. Three sizes, fully warranted. If not with your dealer, write our nearest agency.

The New Order at the White House.

Not the least interesting of the new policies at Washington is that inaugurated by Mrs. Taft, under whom the Executive Mansion has undergone transformation from an official residence into a private home.

The innovations to that end have included a reduction of the staff of attendants, the installation of a housekeeper acting under Mrs. Taft's direction and the abolishment of all unnecessary formality. These changes have been affected without any impairment of the household service or curtailment of official hospitality. A force of twenty-six servants is maintained, and a recent dinner of thirty-two covers testified to the White House facilities for elaborate entertainments.

What Mrs. Taft has sought to do is to restore the social character of White House life, long since subordinated to official interests, and visitors familiar with its traditions have noted the altered tone.

New Traction Line.

Steps have been taken to secure an electric traction line from Winchester to Sharpsburg, Bath county, by way of North Middletown, Bourbon county, and a large delegation from the Winchester Commercial Club went in automobiles yesterday to North Middletown, where they met a similar delegation from Sharpsburg, and discussed the matter. This road would open up a rich country that now has no railroad facilities of any kind. The people along the road are very enthusiastic, and it is said the right of way and a large portion of the money to build the road is ready. This is something we have on numerous occasions urged the Paris Commercial club to look into, but our people will wait until after Winter is over, and the enterprise is then born in to talk about it.

SIMON'S GREAT REMOVAL SALE.

TREMENDOUS SACRIFICE ON SEASONABLE GOODS.

We are going to move! We have about completed our new building directly across the street from our present location. Now, like all similar occasions with a business house, we intend to follow the precedent established by other institutions under similar circumstances, and make a big advertising proposition out of it; but from which the people shall reap the benefit. Consequently, we have planned to reduce the stock to the least possible amount by holding a Removal Sale, and thereby lighten our burden, and the public shall reap the benefit.

Everybody knows what moving an established Dry Goods business means. Everybody knows it means a herculean task to perform to vacate the entire premises we now occupy of all its contents, to move a "million and one" articles of all sizes and shapes.

Now, we don't want to do this if we can help it. We want to lighten the task as much as possible. Bargains like ours have never been offered before in this vicinity.

This is an opportunity of a lifetime--a record-breaker in bargains, which our limited space does not permit to mention.

Don't miss this Sale—It is a Money-saving Sale. Everything in the house Cut during this great Removal Sale.

Remember this Sale is Strictly for Cash.
